

Round 3

First Quarter

(1) During this decade, the Wyoming Territory granted women the vote, but the lack of nationwide women's enfranchisement led Elizabeth Cady Stanton to oppose the 15th amendment which was passed during this decade. Activism in this decade followed a four-year conflict that ended with the assassination of Abraham Lincoln following the surrender of Robert E. Lee. For ten points, name this decade during which Reconstruction began after the U.S. Civil War.

ANSWER: 1860s

(2) This figure revealed the island of Anaphe [[AH-nah-feh]] in order to shelter the Argonauts. Heracles completed his labors for Eurystheus [[yoo-RISS-thee-us]] at this being's command. This deity won a music contest against Pan and turned King Midas's ears into those of a donkey. The patron deity of Delphi, this figure was often conflated with Helios, god of the sun. For ten points, name this Greek god of prophecy, archery, and music, the twin brother of Artemis.

ANSWER: Apollo (or Apollon)

(3) The death of Chokri Belaid [[beh-lah-EED]] in this country led to accusations that the perpetrators were linked to the Ennahda Movement. In 2015, twenty tourists were killed in a terrorist attack on this country's Bardo National Museum. Zine [[ZEE-neh]] El Abidine [[ah-bih-DEE-neh]] Ben Ali was ousted as leader of this country following protests that began after a street vendor set himself on fire in 2011. The Arab Spring began in, for ten points, what North African country?

ANSWER: Republic of Tunisia (accept al-Jumhūrīyah at-Tūnisīyah)

(4) It's not fish, but the Matafère [[mah-tah-FEHR]] Tower was constructed to protect workers who collected this good. This good was collected in provincial granaries before it was sold with a tax known as the gabelle. Faux saunage [[foh soh-NAWZH]] involved the fraudulent upselling of, for ten points, what food preservative often found in mines and seawater?

ANSWER: Salt (accept Sodium Chloride)

(5) Graham Stevenson criticized this show for erroneously portraying Winston Churchill as Home Secretary during one period. Sam Neill portrays an Ulster Protestant policeman in this show following and titled for an historical street gang comprised of working class men who dressed in distinctive tailored clothes. For ten points, name this BBC crime drama which focuses on historical rivalries in Birmingham.

ANSWER: Peaky Blinders

(6) This city's Beyond Shelter anti-drugs program was created by its mayor, Art Agnos, and Lawrence Ferlinghetti co-founded this city's City Lights bookstore. A large Finnish community used to live in this city's Castro district, and this city was the location of the Summer of Love in its Haight [[HATE]]-Ashbury district. For ten points, name this city in northern California.

ANSWER: San Francisco

(7) This man was assisted by straw dummy troops and a thunderstorm in his victory at the Battle of Okehazama [[oh-keh-hah-ZAH-mah]], where he first noticed the talents of his sandal-bearer, who later succeeded him. Akechi Mitsuhide [[ah-KEH-chee mih-tsoo-HEE-deh]] caught this man in Kyoto and forced his suicide in the Honnō-ji Incident. For ten points, name this Japanese daimyo [[DIE-myoh]] and unifier who preceded the rule of Toyotomi Hideyoshi [[toh-yoh-TOH-mee hih-deh-YOH-shee]].

ANSWER: Oda Nobunaga (accept either underlined portion)

(8) The State of Deseret was founded during the presidency of this man who had defeated Democrat Lewis Cass. Many historians believe that bad water from the Washington sewers caused this man's death by cholera. For his victories during the Second Seminole War, this man earned the nickname "Old Rough and Ready." For ten points, name this twelfth U.S. president, who was elected in 1848.

ANSWER: Zachary Taylor

Second Quarter

(1) In what is now this state, the British were rebuffed from taking a city due to William Moultrie's defense of a namesake fort on Sullivan's Island. Over five thousand Continental troops under Benjamin Lincoln were captured at a siege in this state, in which the guerilla tactics of native son Francis Marion earned him the nickname "the Swamp Fox." The Battles of Waxhaws and Camden were fought in, for ten points, what state which also faced the Siege of Charleston?

ANSWER: South Carolina

BONUS: Banastre [[BAH-nah-ster]] Tarleton's brigade was devastated by a "double envelopment" at this late-Revolutionary War battle in modern-day Upstate South Carolina. This battle, and the ensuing Battle of King's Mountain, forced the British army north toward their ultimate defeat.

ANSWER: Battle of Cowpens

(2) This city gave its name to the British naval defense plan for their eastern empire after World War One. Stamford Raffles established a trading post at what became this city on the eastern end of the Strait of Malacca. Off the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula, for ten points, what is this city-state in southeast Asia which has been self-governed since 1959?

ANSWER: Republic of Singapore (or Republik Singapura)

BONUS: Due to their rapid growth from the 1960s to the 1990s, Singapore, Taiwan, South Korea, and Hong Kong became known as the "Four Asian [these animals]," serving as role models to developing countries who became known as "[This animal] Cub Economies."

ANSWER: Tigers

(3) This company's founder created a dynamo that did not require permanent magnets and invented a form of telegraphy that relied on needles rather than Morse Code. An alternator built by this company powered the first instance of street lighting, which occurred in the United Kingdom. One of this company's factories in KZ Bobreck was among those worked by prisoners at Auschwitz. Based in Bavaria, for ten points, what is this German industrial conglomerate?

ANSWER: Siemens AG (accept Siemens and Halske AG; accept Siemens-Halske)

BONUS: Werner von Siemens, the founder of Siemens AG, is the namesake of the SI unit of this measure of the ease with which electrical current passes.

ANSWER: Electrical conductance (accept Conductivity)

(4) This man's collaboration with Hilda Solis led to a $10 million fund to provide illegal immigrants with legal assistance. Antonio Villaraigosa [[vee-yah-rai-GOH-sah]] preceded this man as mayor of a certain city, the first Jewish holder of that position. In 2020, this man claimed "this is not 1992" as part of a promise to not deploy the National Guard as had been done during his city's Rodney King Riots. For ten points, name this Los Angeles mayor, elected in 2013.

ANSWER: Eric Garcetti

BONUS: This man was elected mayor of Los Angeles in 1973 and held that office until 1993, the only Black person to be elected to that office as of 2021 as well as the longest-tenured mayor in LA history.

ANSWER: Thomas "Tom" Bradley

(5) These events were intentionally ignored by General Anton Denikin during the White Terror. An early example of these events occurred when residents of Strasbourg believed that certain residents engaged in "host desecration" and "blood libel." In the nineteenth century, the Pale of Settlement became a hotbed for these violent reprisals, which were motivated by antisemitism. For ten points, name these massacres of Jewish populations in Eastern Europe.

ANSWER: Pogroms (prompt on descriptive answers such as "attacks on Jews")

BONUS: This major Black Sea port city in Ukraine experienced a century of pogroms due to a revival of Medieval antisemitism. This city was the site of the uprising of the crew of the battleship Potemkin.

ANSWER: Odessa

(6) The first parade for this holiday was established by Nicola Larco in San Francisco, and in 2017, the city of Akron drew the ire of its Italian-American community by attempting to replace this holiday with Indigenous Peoples' Day. Usually held in October, this day is widely celebrated on the island of Hispaniola. For ten points, name this holiday which commemorates a man who was long thought to have discovered the New World in 1492.

ANSWER: Columbus Day (accept Day of the Race; accept Dia de la Raza)

BONUS: La Navidad, the settlement established by Columbus's men on Hispaniola, was built from the remains of the Santa Maria. It was located in this modern-day country, the only nation in history to be established by a successful slave revolt.

ANSWER: Republic of Haiti (accept République d'Haïti; accept Republik d Ayiti)

(7) The last ruler with this title, Mahmud IV, met his downfall at the hands of the kingdom of Djenné [[jeh-NEH]]. The first man to hold this royal title led a confederation of Mandinka people in their attempt to subjugate the Sosso king Sumanguru, leading to a victory at Kirina. A man with this title devalued the worth of gold in Egypt due to his generosity while on hajj to Mecca. For ten points, give this term for a Malian ruler, held by men such as Musa I.

ANSWER: Mansa (accept Mansa Musa)

BONUS: This mansa, who founded the Keita Dynasty, names a Mandinka epic passed down via oral tradition by Malian griots.

ANSWER: Sundiata [[soon-JAH-tah]] Keita (accept Keita; accept Konaté in place of Keita)

(8) The Community Rule is one of these texts, the finding of which led to a reassessment of accusations that a work presented by Moses Shapira was a forgery. Debates exist as to whether the Zadokites or the Essenes are responsible for these texts. A group of Bedouins discovered these works in a series of twelve caves in Qumran. For ten points, name these Jewish manuscripts found in the West Bank along a namesake body of water.

ANSWER: Dead Sea Scrolls (accept Qumran Cave Scrolls before mentioned)

BONUS: One of the first of the Dead Sea Scrolls to be identified contains the oldest complete copy of this Biblical book. Today this book is considered the first of the Major Prophets in the Old Testament and is the source of much of the text of Handel's Messiah.

ANSWER: Book of Isaiah (or Sefer Yeshayahu)

Third Quarter

The categories are:

1. Vice Presidents
2. Daily Life in Ancient Greece
3. Apostles

Vice Presidents

Regarding U.S. vice presidents, name the person who...

(1) Is America's second Catholic president who earlier served under Barack Obama.

ANSWER: Joseph "Joe" Biden, Jr.

(2) Served as Attorney General of California from 2011 to 2017.

ANSWER: Kamala Harris

(3) Accidentally shot Harry Whittington while hunting.

ANSWER: Richard "Dick" Cheney

(4) Made the American public aware of the threat of global warming in An Inconvenient Truth.

ANSWER: Albert "Al" Gore

(5) Was told "Senator, you're no Jack Kennedy" by Lloyd Bentsen in a 1988 debate.

ANSWER: James Danforth "Dan" Quayle

(6) Was the only VP other than Schuyler [[SKY-ler]] Colfax who also served as Speaker of the House.

ANSWER: John Nance Garner

(7)

ANSWER:

(8)

ANSWER:

Daily Life in Ancient Greece

Concerning the daily life of people in Ancient Greece, name the...

(1) Fruit whose oil was used to fuel lamps.

ANSWER: Olives

(2) Facility for training and socializing for male athletes.

ANSWER: Gymnasium (accept Gymnasia; prompt on "gym")

(3) Sport practiced at a palaestra, for which it was also named.

ANSWER: Wrestling (do not accept or prompt on "boxing")

(4) Central public space whose name means "assembly."

ANSWER: Agora

(5) Stadium for horse and chariot racing.

ANSWER: Hippodrome

(6) God of medicine commonly prayed to for healing.

ANSWER: Asclepius (accept Hepius)

(7)

ANSWER:

(8)

ANSWER:

Apostles

Concerning the Apostles of Jesus Christ, name the...

(1) Man whose name was originally Simon.

ANSWER: Simon Peter (accept Cephas; prompt on Simeon)

(2) Apostle from Tarsus, named Saul prior to his conversion.

ANSWER: Paul

(3) "Doubting" man believed to have ministered in India.

ANSWER: Doubting Thomas (accept Didymus)

(4) Traditional author of both the Book of Revelation and the only non-Synoptic Gospel.

ANSWER: John of Patmos (accept John the Revelator; accept John the Divine; accept John the Theologian)

(5) Name shared by two apostles, one a son of Alphaeus, the other of Zebedee.

ANSWER: James (accept Ya'akov; accept Iakobos)

(6) Patron saint of Scotland whose symbol is an X-shaped cross.

ANSWER: Andrew, the First-Called (accept Andreas)

(7)

ANSWER:

(8)

ANSWER:

Fourth Quarter

(1) One key negotiating point of this treaty was the opening of the Mississippi River. Concessions in present-day states including Ohio helped double the size of one party's territory in this treaty. The (+) Comte de Rochambeau [[roh-shahm-BOH]] helped bring about this treaty by assisting one side in defeating the forces of Charles (*) Cornwallis at Yorktown. For ten points, name this treaty which ended the American Revolution.

ANSWER: Treaty of Paris of 1783

(2) The Six Steeds of Zhao Mausoleum was made in this dynasty. One of this dynasty's kilns was located at Tongguan, and this dynasty's Giant Wild Goose Pagoda survived the 1556 (+) Shaanxi [[SHAHN-SHE]] Earthquake. A poet from this dynasty wrote "Waking from Drunkenness on a Spring Day" and a work which begins "Before my bed there's a pool of light," the poem (*) "Quiet Night Thought." For ten points, Li Bai wrote during what Chinese dynasty?

ANSWER: Tang [[TAHNG]] Dynasty (accept Tang Empire)

(3) A rescue of Captain Egan may have led to the best known nickname given to this figure, who was said to have chased Jack McCall with a meat cleaver after McCall murdered an acquaintance. This (+) woman was once employed as an assistant to a madam in Deadwood, where she had arrived as part of a wagon train including "Wild Bill" (*) Hickok. For ten points, name this storyteller from Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show.

ANSWER: Calamity Jane (accept Martha Jane Canary)

(4) This man was the first person to conduct multiple space walks and designed a mission patch based on an illustration from Water, Pev, and Game Birds of North America. A book of eighteen (+) rendezvous scenarios was created by this man, who was the subject of the quote "not since Adam has any human known such (*) solitude." For ten points, who was this Columbia pilot, the crewmate of Buzz Aldrin and Neil Armstrong during Apollo 11?

ANSWER: Michael Collins

(5) With Great Britain, this government agreed to pursue the policy of appeasement and award Germany the Sudetenland under Édouard Daladier [[dah-lah-DYEH]]. This (+) government was first established during the chaos of the Franco-Prussian War and the fall of Emperor Napoleon (*) III's regime. For ten points, name this government which collapsed after Nazi Germany's 1940 invasion of France and was succeeded by the Vichy government.

ANSWER: French Third Republic (prompt on "France" before mentioned; accept La Troisième République)

(6) In Muslim mythology, this man was a Palestinian Christian who was killed three times by the king of Mosul, only to resurrect himself each time. According to tradition, this saint served as a member of the Praetorian Guard (+) until he was sentenced to death after not renouncing his Christian faith. Crusader states like the Genoese Republic used this saint's (*) namesake cross as their ensign. For ten points, name this Catholic saint who legendarily slayed a dragon in Libya.

ANSWER: Saint George of Lydda

(7) A pioneer of this trail named William Becknell left from the Boonslick region near one of its termini at Franklin. Comanche traders collected tolls along this route, which contained (+) Fort Dodge. This trail was rendered largely obsolete in 1880 with the advent of the railroad in its central region. Passing through Colorado and Kansas (*) en route to the Missouri River, for ten points, what trail had an end in a namesake New Mexico city?

ANSWER: Santa Fe Trail

(8) This ruler held Lord Strange as a hostage to ensure the loyalty of Lord Stanley. This husband of Anne Neville faced a revolt by the Duke of Buckingham (+) after this man seized the throne from the child of his brother, Edward IV. A landing at Milford Haven in 1485 was a precursor to this man becoming the last English king to (*) die in battle. For ten points, name this man who lost the Battle of Bosworth Field to the future Tudor king, Henry VII.

ANSWER: Richard III (prompt on "Richard")

Extra Question

(1) Members of this ethnic group who formed the Grey Wolves may have been responsible for the 2015 Bangkok bombing. These people were sent to "Vocational Education and (+) Training Centers," in which they faced abuse during the "people's war on terror." Many of these people live in historical Dzungaria in Urumqi [[oo-ROOM-kee]], the capital of (*) Xinjiang [[SHIN-JAHNG]]. For ten points, name these persecuted Turks in China.

ANSWER: Uighurs [[WEE-goor]]

BONUS: This wife of Akhenaten co-led a monotheistic revolution in Egypt and may have served as pharaoh herself in the 14th century BC. A noted ancient bust of this woman is on display in Berlin's Neues [[NOH-yehs]] museum.

ANSWER: Neferneferuaten Nefertiti