

Cooking Class (Answers at the bottom of the page)

1. Which famous chef served as a spy in the OSS, the forerunner of the CIA, during World War II in Sri Lanka?
2. What American restaurant chain offers you hash browns “scattered, smothered, covered, chunked, diced, peppered, capped, topped and/or country?”
3. A spongy and sour bread known as injera is a staple of which African country’s food?
4. Aside from the USA, name any two of the five countries with over 1000 Starbucks outlets.
5. Old Bay seasoning comes from which state, where it is often applied to crabcakes?
6. Which popular sandwich made with corned beef or pastrami, sauerkraut, and Russian dressing shares its name with one of the 12 tribes of Israel?
7. Galatoire’s, Antoine’s, and Commander’s Palace are three of the top restaurants in which city, where you can order beignets to go at Café du Monde?
8. The late pope Emeritus perhaps liked which breakfast dish, consisting of two halves of an English muffin each of which is topped with Canadian bacon, ham or sometimes bacon, a poached egg, and hollandaise sauce?

ANSWERS

1. Julia Child
2. Waffle House
3. Ethiopia
4. Canada, UK, China, Japan, or South Korea
5. Maryland
6. Reuben
7. New Orleans
8. Eggs Benedict